

MENTOR –MENTEE

The Importance of mentoring is to maintain professional relationship. Mentoring is not a answer to all the problems and issues related to personal and professional life of the mentee and his/her family.

Mentorship is an effort to maintain professional standards, improve the mentor skills, and exercise good judgment when engaged in any activity involving the mentee.

MECHANISM

1. Students distributed to the each mentor.
2. Mentor Conducts periodical meetings with mentee students.
3. Problems and issues of mentee sorted by the mentor.

OBJECTIVES

1. To provide academic counseling
2. To enlighten the students on professional ethics and conduct
3. To communicate with the Students
4. Providing emotional support to students on individual basis
5. Establishing rapport between teachers, student & parents.
6. Monitoring attendance and behavioral aspects of every student.
7. To establish good sense of rapport with students so that they developed healthy Teacher- Student relationship.

Guidelines for proper mentorship

1. At the initial stages, the mentee may appear to be hesitant, unresponsive, and unappreciative of the mentor-mentee relationship. This guarded attitude is simply a manifestation of his/her insecurity about the relationship. The mentee's attitude will gradually take a positive turn as he/she realizes your sincerity about being a good guide in terms of mentor.
2. All meetings should be scheduled in advanced and should be in notice to the HOD/Dean/Principal.
3. Don't try to be teacher, parent, disciplinarian and psychotherapist during mentor mentee
4. Don't criticize or Think of ways to solve the problem together rather than lecturing or telling the mentee what to do. Never have a negative attitude towards your mentee.
5. Respect the uniqueness and honor the integrity of your mentee and influence him/her through constructive feedback.
6. Always explore positive and negative consequences of each and every point/matter/issue.
7. Encourage your mentee to complete his/her education and pursue higher learning or professional goals; provide access to varying points of view.
8. As a teacher cum guide you can share and advise, but know your limitations. Never be very personal and share personal You should preferably interact with your mentees in a group.
