

DEPARTMENT OF GENERAL MEDICINE

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES:

At the end of general medicine course, the student should be able to comprehend:

P.O.1. Special emphasis should be given throughout on the importance of various diseases as applicable to dentistry.
I. Special precautions/ contraindications of anaesthesia and various dental procedures in different systemic diseases.
II. Oral manifestations of systemic diseases.
III. Medical emergencies in dental practice.

COURSE OUTCOMES:

At the end of the course, the student would be able to:

C.O.1. Take history, do general physical examination (including build, nourishment, pulse, BP, respiration, clubbing, cyanosis, jaundice, lymphadenopathy, oral cavity) and be able to examine CVS, RS and abdomen and facial nerve.
--